The police healthcare scheme

For police officers, police staff and their families

We don't live life expecting to be injured or for things to go wrong with our health, but they can and do. Bluline's healthcare scheme has been specifically designed for police officers, police staff and their families. Our purpose is to provide support in the event of ill health or injury, to help you get better and back to work as quickly as possible.

What our members say

“ Bluline provide peace of mind that your family are going to be given medical care or intervention if required. It is fabulous value for money as you cannot put a price on what they have done for my family. ”
