

Police Officers - Are You Paying Too Much Tax? You Might Be!

Nearly 3 in 4 Police Officers<sup>(i)</sup> are paying more tax than they should — because they think their Force takes care of it.

But here's the truth: It's your job to check your tax is right, not the Force's. That's the rules according to HMRC.

Not sure how to check your tax? No problem — we've got your back.

Let the Employment Tax Experts Do the Hard Work for You.

Here's what you get:

-  Full tax check by our team of experts
-  A clear report showing what we checked and if anything's wrong
-  HMRC Claim forms ready to go, plus easy step-by-step instructions to get 100% of your money back from HMRC (if anything's wrong)<sup>(ii)</sup>
-  All this for just £25<sup>(iii)</sup>
-  Free second check within 12 months if your job or pay change

Alternatively, our team of experts can carry out a Full Tax Check free of charge, and if we discover you have paid too much, we'll do all the work to get your money back off HMRC and you pay a fee based on the value of your refund - 42p per £1 you get back, subject to a minimum fee of £42.

NB: the average fee will be £81.66 based on the average refund for a Police Officer being £194.44<sup>(iv)</sup>.

---

Don't let your money stay in HMRC's pocket. Click HERE to check your tax and recover what's rightfully yours.

---

<sup>(i)</sup>From 16,852 Police Officers completing our tax code review between 26 May 2023 and 30 September 2025 where 11,981 (71%) have resulted in the Officer receiving a refund or a refund is still due from HMRC

<sup>(ii)</sup>Option to upgrade – let us deal with HMRC for you if anything’s wrong and we GUARANTEE you will get back everything HMRC owes you, for just another £50<sup>(iii)</sup>.

<sup>(iii)</sup>Fee can be paid in 3 monthly instalments, interest free.

<sup>(iv)</sup>As at 30 September 2025 of the 11,981 Officers in (i) above due a refund, 10,698 had received a total of £2,079,992.